

HAMLATUL ARSY

A mover of pixels travelling in a vehicle with deep passion for unique spaces, imagination and stories. On a never ending journey; that began at the age of 5, has allowed her to explore both traditional and digital spaces; constantly finding creative ways to bring them together in a tradigital world.

An ever growing visual library filled with travels, adventure, curiosity and meaning developed over the years that informs not only her art but also her worldview.

A dancer, story & visual development artist, 2D animator and plant lover
